

I feel that RM-10413 does not truly represent the Amateur community and should be postponed until fully researched to find out what the Amateurs really want. I myself am against the refarming issue and would like to see the bands stay as they are.